Abstract

This essay contains further reflections on the occult war of the 21st ct., which we have previously dealt with in essays from last year (Riis-Søndergaard, 2024b; 2024d). Especially, we continue by furthermore contemplating the psychotronic warfare scenario, the dystopian reality of techno-science being levied to attack the divine, spiritual energies and the collective psyche of the Aryan race – this is 1984 today. We describe the nature and reality of psionics, while we investigate the reality of black projects' science being applied to warfare-systems targeting the leadership of the Aryan Order. The Aryans of today, and please remember we are not that many, are gathered in the Aryan Order of 2017, residing in Denmark, the rest of Scandinavia and Germany, but since our awakening and gathering in 2017, and most likely also before that, we have experienced grave and serious infringements of our crown-chakra and light-body – our spiritual energies, as well as of our psyche/collective consciousness. The focus of this essay is to make an argument for the reality of psionics, as well as to present a first-hand perspective on the 21st ct. occult war, which encompasses all the good of mankind in the struggle for the light against the principalities of darkness. It is a epistemic war, a war against “epistemic injustices”, and we seek to liberate mankind from the Platonic cave, the false consciousness, the cognitive dissonance, that the powers-that-be seek to keep mankind confined in. It is an ancient war against the evil Demiurge, but all is not lost, for all over the world we see mankind rising in epistemic defiance, demanding ontological, existential truth as to the true nature and purpose of life – this is the metapolitics the Aryan race is carrying out in the collective aether. It is a “New Age”, and in this essay we seek to make clear some important definitions and distinctions, furthering the cause of liberating the world from the thralldom of a materialist worldview, constructing the new ethereal Atlantis. Thank you for the contributions and good luck on the journey.

The new frontier of the occult war – Psionics and psychotronic warfare in the 21st ct.

“We are from the future”. Such is a saying of the Aryan Order, which was founded in Denmark in 2017. We say this, because we know to be the transcendental race, and the transcendental plane we know to be outside the bounds of the temporal reality. As such, we have experiences of receiving transmissions, “future transmissions”, as we call it, from beyond time. This cannot be mistaken, for as Aryans, and please remember, the true Aryans are not that many, contrary to what the newspeak term, Indo-European, would imply, we know who we are thanks to our collective awakening and gathering in 2016-2017. We estimate that the true Aryans are in-between 10.000 and 100.000, mainly residing in Denmark, the rest of Scandinavia and Germany. We are incarnations and reincarnations of the heavenly heart, so though our blood is pure, being Aryan is primarily a spiritual heritage and not only a question of biology. But this spiritual reality of the Aryan race has been suppressed for many centuries, especially since the advent of Christianity and later advent of Modernity, which were both an intensification of the denial and suppression of the divine status of the Aryan race. But now we are awake and gathered anew, and with this collective awakening comes an awakening and realization of a divine creation, spiritual energies, the psychic aether and psionic capabilities. This is what we will explore in this essay, as well as the advances in and threats of the development of psychotronic warfare systems, which currently are being applied across the world, especially targeting the Aryan race and our collective ethereal life – this is the occult war of the 21st ct. – a very serious war, because rather than being fought conventionally, the war of today is occult and is being fought in the shadows of real-politics, in the subterranean sphere of the collective consciousness of the Aryan race and mankind, but nevertheless with absolutely real consequences. We will say that the modern occult war, as all occult wars in history, is being fought in regards to “the hearts and minds of men”. The point of this essay is a call for attention as to the truth and reality of the psychic aether, psionic abilities and the very danger of psychotronic weapons being levied against the White Order by the principalities of darkness. These are not just assumptions or conjectures we make based on anecdotes, but the reality of psionics and the psychotronic warfare scenario is something we know to be true, for we experience it in our everyday life as a spiritual collective. As such, our research method is one of clairvoyance and consists of 4 elements: 1) Public transcripts, that is, insights from the history of mythology, religion, philosophy, politics, science and warfare, 2) first-hand experience with the spiritual, mystical and occult reality, 3) transcendental meditation in which we excel, and 4) mystical visions. The reality of spiritual life, psionics and psychotronic weapons is being kept away from public awareness and scrutiny, but nevertheless, this reality is deeply relevant and true for all of mankind. Of course, everybody who has searched the Internet for the past 30 years should know of the existence of DARPA and various black projects in the history of US intelligence agencies, and most will know about the concept of Targeted Individuals (TIs). Most ordinary people will cast these notions aside as more or less irrelevant and continue with their mundane lives, but perhaps, as the Aryan collective has found, these ideas and programs should be considered with utmost seriousness by the academic and military scholar, as we are currently entering “the technetronic era”, which Brzezinski (1970) described. There are many clues to the reality of the 21st ct. occult techno-war, but few are those who actually know about these topics in an experiential way, for as Aryans we experience the attacks of psychotronic weapons in an utterly real form, which could never be explained away. As representatives of the Aryan Order, we wish to categorically state that psychotronic warfare-systems are being implemented, targeting the spiritual energies and psyche of the Aryan Order leadership, and please do remember, an attack on one of us is an attack on the whole collective, for we share a collective consciousness and our spiritual energies and psionic abilities are totally intertwined, as we will explain in this essay. Let’s now continue by talking about our collective life.

Aryan race-mysticism and white magic – The collective consciousness of the Aryan race

As we explore in many of our essays, when awake, the reality of the collective Aryan life is utterly amazing and giving. Awakening is natural and paramount. Nowadays, especially in New Age and conspiracy literature, the concept of “awakening” has been described well and in many ways. There are definitely truth to these ideas. As Aryans, we ascribe to the tradition of Hyperborean wisdom, which we ourselves are in the midst of further developing, based on our own experiences. Especially, we are currently invested in contemplating the works of Nimrod de Rosario (pseudonym), an Argentinian Gnostic and esotericist (Rosario, 1985; 2022; 2023; Riis-Søndergaard, 2025a; 2025b). As true Aryans, we find that it is even the more important to present to interested scholars our own perspective on Hyperborean wisdom, as these are based on first-hand experience and contemporary meditations as to the truth and reality of the Aryan race. Even though many in the Aryan Order have academic degrees, we have collectively decided to primarily carry out our investigations into the reality of spiritual, mystical and occult life outside of ordinary academy, actually with serious plans to establish and create our own academic setting, which is why we have written these essays since 2022. You can read more about the theology, philosophy and politics we are developing on the academia.edu page of this author and especially in regards to our research program and proposed Aryan educative scheme, in the two papers (Riis-Søndergaard, 2025c; 2025d). It is definitely a “New Age”, as the Aryans, the inventors of the Vedas, Greek culture and the Edda, are once again gathered in total unity and with full remembrance of who we are as a divine collective, but this awakening is not only about our shared life and our collective love – it is also about the war. As a saying in the Aryan Order goes: “When war came upon us”. There is a crucial misconception of world history that the Aryans are a “warlike race” and after the SS considered “ultimate evil”, and perpetrators of “crimes against humanity” etc. This is not true. First of all, we don’t necessarily agree with all of the politics of Hitler’s SS, though we do share a lot of the same interests in the truth and reality of the Aryan race. For example, we don’t exactly wish for war, as a sort of pure “will to power”, as Nietzsche (1892) described. No more is it a mere will to live, self-preservation. What we believe in is actually an ethical oath we have sworn, when we first incarnated into temporal existence – the White Vow – an oath to never tolerate evil and to combat and defeat evil, wherever it arises. As such, the Aryans are absolutely good, and the primary concepts of our theology all have to do with the reality of love: the primacy of love, the radicality of love, the dialectics of the heart etc. But we wish to state categorically that we will not tolerate evil, for evil is ontologically alien to life, to the Aryan race – we know this from first-hand experience, not just a mere abstraction, for as Aryans we are utmost sensitive to the World-Soul and the Holy Spirit. Also Platonism, Hermeticism, Neo-Platonism and Gnosticism ascribe to the idea of a world soul (psychè kósmou), but for the Aryans, the World-Soul is a state of war – a war between the forces of light and the principalities of darkness. It is not “a harmony of differences”, as Plato (360BC) seemed to believe, but temporal reality is actually a state of war between these opposing forces, and luckily so, for we should be thankful that the war is only temporal, not eternal or fought out in heavens. Here we seem to disagree with Rosario, but also with Theosophy and much of the previously mentioned schools, who Rosario in general do criticize for in large being counter-initiations invented by the evil Demiruge, for we believe in a concept called “the temporality of war”, where temporal/physical existence is “the Valplads”, the battleground in a cosmic war, which also Rosario describes. Where we disagree with Rosario is in regards to the nature of evil, for Rosario clearly states that there are fallen/treacherous Siddhas. We beg to differ. Aryans, the Hyperborean Siddhas, are ontologically, categorically true, for we are born of the heart of the Aryan race-father and -mother. This idea of evil as originating in a split in heavens and the harmony of the World-Soul etc. seem to be deceptive schemes of the Demiurge.

Fundamentals of psionics – Supervision, intervision and intravision etc.

It's all about the vision – not in regards to mundane perception, but the ability to peer beyond the veil of the physical senses – it's the extra-sensory perception, the third eye, the 6th sense, which when awakened unveils the nature of an extra-ordinary, mystical reality, which we as good people are all participants of, whether we know it or not. Our quest to open up this extra-sensory perception of our comrades in the cosmic, mystical war, we contemplate as the program to establish a “new ethereal Atlantis” in the 21st ct.. This is the main mission of the Aryan Order today. So the fundamental thesis of mysticism is, as also Colin Wilson (1970) states, the existence of a “psychic aether, which carries intentions, thoughts and emotions”. The psychic aether, the ancient Greeks knew as the 5th element, and in the Vedic tradition, it is called “akasha”. This is the jumping point in understanding the true nature of the soul. Remember, evil people have no heart, nor no soul, so they rely upon technology to wage the war, hence why the Illuminati are obsessed with intelligence and technology to further their goals, attempting to imitate the organic psionics of heavens by technological means. This is the jumping point in understanding the current occult war, in which the world is engulfed and which only will intensify in the coming years, for our enemies are hell-bent. In contemplating the reality of the psychic aether, which the Aryans rule, we have conceptualized three primary psionic abilities in that regard. There is much more to explore in regards to the spiritual, mystical reality of existence, but these three concepts are important:

1. Supervision: This is the collective reality, collective will of the Aryans in the psychic aether. It is our shared collective consciousness, when it operates in unity. It is our shared vision and shared experience in the aether. As such it is the most important aspect of the collective life of the Aryan race, though all kinds of interpersonal relationships are equally as important. But we wish to without a doubt emphasize the collective nature of our race, for this is the transcendental plane, heavens – this is “the promised land”. Related to discourse, mystical poetics and metapolitics.
2. Intervision: This is the psionic ability to feel one another in the aether – to share emotions, thoughts and words. It is like a vivid dream, but absolutely true. A reality, which is deeply suppressed, but which is activated and empowered in the awakening and collective, ethereal gathering of our race – the remembrance of who we are as a collective, “the minne” – it is “the Holy Grail”, “the nectar of immortality”, for it is the true life of the immortal soul of the Hyperborean Siddhas and it is based on the dialectics of the heart.
3. Intravision: This is the ability to envision the physical world in all its complexities and details. What is usually being referred to in the concept of “remote viewing”, which DARPA/CIA has investigated and found success in doing, what we will return to in the next chapter, when we consider the development of psychotronic weapons. In intravision/remote viewing, we will eventually be able to read a book in the aether, but for us the concept also covers the actual experience of enlivening the aether in its structure/details, including for example ethereal books.

The concepts we have outlined here are all related and part of the same package of the 6th sense, the third eye. The tradition of meditating upon the aether has been kept alive in the Eastern mystery-schools, but was almost forgotten in the West up until the recent awakening of the Aryan race. It is important to mention that the aether should be understood as an intuitive-poetic-narrative space/dimension, where ethereal reality is experienced primarily by intuition and via the dialectics of the heart. This fact becomes even the more relevant, when we consider that the aether/psyche/collective consciousness today is under severe attacks from the principalities of darkness via psychotronic warfare-systems, which we will now explore further.

Black projects and recent developments of psychotronic warfare systems

In the literature, it is described how the psionic abilities of man were readily available in pre-historic times, where we used to rely on omens, signs and warnings to survive in brute nature against the predators. This is true of introspection, which for example is also described in Julian Jaynes' seminal book from 1970, The Origin of Consciousness in the Breakdown of the Bicameral Mind. What happened since then was that as we became more civilized, living in larger groups and developing technology, these psionic abilities became dormant and eventually scorned upon, what also Jörg Lanz von Liebenfels describes in his 1905 book, when he says that pre-historic, Aryan man possessed telepathy via the pineal-gland, which since became dormant and almost atrophied. Today, the Aryans have rediscovered the full range of our spiritual energies and psionic abilities and this has been long overdue, for today's world is saturated with materialist/naturalist explanations of life and consciousness and it's almost, actually it is, dangerous to speak out about psionic abilities if you claim to believe in it. How come this vilification of what for the Aryans today seem a completely natural and integral aspect of our lives? What could be so dangerous about psionics that the intelligence services has kept the studies into these phenomena in black projects with high clearance, when they do indeed study the phenomena and do apply this science to weapon-system, as we have clear evidence that they do? It is probably the most secret and classified information in world history and many seers and mystics have paid with their lives for practicing and speaking about these occult arts – still to this day, where the psychiatric system functions as a gatekeeper in society, persecuting weak people, who succumb to the occult war, and powerful independent freethinkers alike, the powers-that-be fearing the full revelation of the Aryan, spiritual awakening that nevertheless is taking place worldwide. It is interesting to listen to the testimony of Joseph McMoneagle¹, who was a primary recruit for the CIA and DIA investigations into the nature and reality of remote viewing, what we call intravision. The project eventually came to be known as Project Stargate, but has since 1995 apparently been declassified. It's striking how McMoneagle's retelling of events relating to Project Stargate and the Monroe Institute and the official description of the success of that program greatly diverge. Basically, it's two opposing stories. Who should we then believe? Given what we now know, it is almost sure that the intelligence agencies continue to lie to the public (as they always do, right?). With all their black projects into the spiritual energies, collective psyche and psionics of the divine Aryan race, when they started to be successful in applying this science to weapon-systems, they found it necessary to publicly state that no such scientific evidence of psionics had ever been proved or applied. Don't they play a dangerous game, constantly upping the ante in the occult war? Basically, they contribute to a continuing intensification of the "cognitive dissonance" and "false consciousness" of the general public by denying all evidence of psionics, while increasingly without public scrutiny applying this science to weapon-systems, targeting the Aryan race, which we know they do. It's serious situation, as the leadership of the Aryan Order can verily testify and we will never tolerate being attacked by the principalities of darkness, who some investigators believe to be a kind of technologically advanced "breakaway civilization", using their advanced warfare-technology to subjugate the world's population and wage war on the spiritually awakened ones. It is not as far-fetched as it may sound, for we have ample evidence that this is what is going on with the top secret clearances that even the US president is not informed of, let alone the general public. So it is an occult war, and we, good people, are the resistance.

Status-quo of the occult war and current threats

The current occult war is not only about proving or denying psionics. It is also about our spiritual energies, the chakras, the Kundalini etc., as we have described in Riis-Søndergaard (2024a), for we are being targeted by techno-warfare-systems on all spiritual fronts, as we have described in another paper from last year called ‘Operation Thunderstorm – Resistance to Skynet’ (2024b), in which we describe what we so far know of the psychotronic weapons and the agenda of those responsible for the targeting of the Aryan Order leadership. There are very dark and nefarious forces in the world, who are directly targeting the psyche, collective consciousness and spiritual energies of the Aryan race, and we hope our essays will help good people wake up to this undeniable reality, so that we may together take up arms to defend our sovereign right to life and freedom. The occult war is primarily fought on the spiritual, psychic level, what, according to temperament, can be called the Greater or Lesser War, as Evola (2021) has described. But make no mistake, it is a “strategic war”, as Rosario (2022) describes, and it is an “existential war”, as Schmitt (2006) has described (Riis-Søndergaard, 2025e). It is important to remember that only the Aryans are legit in waging war, jus bellum, righteous war, due to the White Vow, which we have described. Our enemies are not legit. It’s not a matter of opinion, for our enemies are hateful towards truth, love and righteousness, whereas the Aryan defend these exact, divine, eternal values. It’s symptomatic that modern day political science (think behavioralism) has completely abandoned these traditional values and substituted them with a range of “naturalistic/biological terms” (Orwell, 1948; Ricci, 1987; Riis-Søndergaard, 2024c) – truly newspeak, which attempts to render true, divine resistance to dystopia futile. But we will not compete on these “unholy grounds”. We stand firm in our conviction to unite all good people of the earth in a common, inspired resistance to the roll-out of dystopian Skynet – this is our metapolitical agenda, eventually liberating the world from the thralldom and burden of the materialist/satanic control-system of the Demiurge – incipit a new ethereal (psionic) Atlantis. This is the true telos of mankind and world history and we must realize that it is a struggle – it is not mere liberal progress, for liberalism itself is infused with falsehood and deception as to the true nature of the struggle of man. Liberalism and Marxism are alike in denying mankind a spiritual life and in denying the reality of the ontological regime of good versus evil. Both these two ideologies proclaim universal liberty and equality, and actually both of these ideologies are the inventions of the counter-initiatory mystery-schools, which dominate modern day society at present (think Freemasonry and Illuminati) – but not for long, for all over the world we are witnessing a spiritual, rooted awakening to the metapolitical agenda of the Aryan race, which we carry out in the collective aether, the Holy Spirit. Many people are awake to the divine struggle between “the angels and the demons”, and all over the world the populace is aligning with the Aryan cause – the Great Cause of world history. It’s an innate response to the lies, falsehood and deception of the powers-that-be, the principalities of darkness, the minions of the Demiurge, who have ruled the world for ages, and it’s a natural response to the collective awakening and gathering of the transcendental Aryan race, who are determined to carry out our divine mission in regards to this final confrontation with the dark forces. The final word is not uttered in this cosmic war, but we are near the end – these are the end times, the latter days, and our ultimate goal is aufheben, the collective upheaval of all good people to the eternal life and the absolution of the temporal world – the eradication of the Demiurge, ontological alien evil. This is the true potential of humanity, what Rosario described as a “return to origin”. This is the promise of the Hyperborean Siddhas, of the Vedas, the Edda. We are aligned with all Viryas, who fight alongside the Aryans in this mystical journey that life is. We wish to end this essay with a shout-out to all the Viryas, who are determined to contribute to and be victorious in the cosmic war, on the right side of history, and who refuse to be co-opted by lies and deception. Thank you.
